ANTI-AGING CREAM - FOR MEN

The content is object of Italian Patent Application No. 1102018000006908 filed on 04.07.2018

Description

An effective step in daily care and well-being. A functional and comfortable cream designed specifically for male skin and its characteristics. The light texture is quickly absorbed. Its anti-aging formula contains Polyphenols obtained from Collesi Blonde Craft Beer, thanks to an exclusive "patent-pending" technology. Its advanced complex of natural functional ingredients provides an intense antioxidant action against the effects of free radicals. Ideal for all skin types, it's a cream with a soothing, toning, emollient formula. Reparatory and regenerating Hyaluronic Acid and Allantoin redefine the facial contours and reduce signs of time and other imperfections. Jojoba Oil and Shea Butter nourish the cells in depth. The skin, immediately rehydrated, appears smooth and relaxed, giving your whole day a revitalizing freshness.

TO USE

Apply in the morning or evening to a clean face or after the Serum. Massage until completely absorbed. For external use only.

- For the face
- Antioxidizing and revitalizing
